First Church in Everett, Congregational History of One Hundred Years Service

HISTORICAL SKETCH

"The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad". (Psalm 126: 3)

Compiled by Miss Betty McCulloch

To have reached the 100th milestone is a historic event. To have given a century of consecrated service to God and community, to have worshipped in the same church building during all those years, and to have ministered to the spiritual and social needs of four generations of citizens is a glorious achievement. It is therefore with understandable pride that we of First Church pause at the threshold of our second century and pay reverent tribute to those faithful ones whose efforts and sacrifices have brought us to this milestone.

The early history and growth of First Church is, in truth, the early history and growth of our community itself. When our history began, this region in which we live was still a part of the Town of Malden, and was known as the South District. There was no regular place of worship and "the region so attractive by nature" was "fast becoming a moral waste." Those disposed to church attendance were obliged to attend places of worship in other parishes. In 1847 the population had increased to the point where the religious needs of the community began to require local attention and organization. The first Sabbath School was established through the efforts of Miss Joanna T. Oliver, a resident of Chelsea Street, and a group of her interested friends of all denominations. The first meeting was held in the upper hall of the old Centre Schoolhouse, where the Central Fire Station now stands. There were thirty-six persons in attendance. So rapid was the growth of this group in interest and attendance, that certain observant and public-spirited citizens began to consider seriously the formation of a church.

A few experimental meetings were held at the old schoolhouse and the growth of interest noted. Rev. Joseph A. Benton was called in December to supply the pulpit. On March 8, 1848 a number of citizens gathered at the home of Uriah Oakes to select a council to draw up Articles of Faith and to make other arrangements. On March 16, 1848 the council met again, and, with a group of neighboring clergymen officiating, held a service of organization. The following were the twenty-four Charter Members:

Isaac Clapp	Elizabeth Blaney	Elizabeth Stimpson
Samuel H. Clapp	Susan P. Clapp	Esther R. Whittemore
Uriah Oakes	Rebecca J. T. Mansfield	Esther Whittemore
Nehemiah M. Rider	Charlotte Oakes	Joanna T. Whittemore
William Whittemore, Jr.	Elizabeth W. Oliver	Mariah H. Whittemore
John Wilcutt	Joanna T. Oliver	Emeline Willcutt
Eliza A. Baldwin	Lucy B. Oliver	Mary A. Wilson
Harriet Battelle	Lucy Pierce	Sarah Oakes

On March 25th, the group chose the name Winthrop Congregational Church since it was then anticipated that the South Malden district would eventually become incorporated as the Town of Winthrop. Rev. Benton continued as acting pastor until 1849. It is in his handwriting that these events are recorded. It was he also who wrote the original By-Laws, the Confession of Faith and the explanation as to why they chose to worship "the Congregational way."

In October of 1849 the Rev. Francis G. Pratt was installed as first regular pastor, in which position he continued for nine years. During his pastorate the land on which the church was built was purchased from William Whittemore's heirs for a price of six cents per foot. Erection of the church began and the cornerstone was laid at a sunrise ceremony attended "by a great concourse of people." The building and land cost about $12,000. The church was of old New England type architecture with a tall spire, straight walls and painted white. It stood on the lot practically devoid of other buildings from Church Street to Norwood Street. Dedication of the church took place on December 8, 1852 and the first Sunday Service was held on December 12th. The building of this new church was a gigantic enterprise for the little community, most of whose people were comparatively poor. Many times, indeed, it looked as if the property might pass out of their hands due to financial difficulties. But diligent work, great sacrifices and earnest prayers during the years which followed eventually reaped their reward.

In 1858 a part of the church withdrew and organized a Chapel Church on Cottage Street with the Rev. L. H. Angier as stated supply. The church was reunited in 1861 under Rev. George Denham, just six months after the nation was plunged into the Civil War. At this time the name of the church was changed to South Malden (later Everett) Congregational Church.

The first Women's organization of the church was the Ladies' Prayer Circle which was organized at the home of Miss Oliver. In 1876 a Ladies' Missionary Society was formed, and later in 1879 another group known as the Ladies' Aid Society. These two groups merged in 1892 and became known as the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society.

During Rev. Albert Bryant's ministry the Church observed its 25th Anniversary. During this period also (about 1869) a Young People's Prayer Meeting was organized to meet the needs of the young people of our parish. This continued for a number of needs. In 1886 the young people became interested in the Christian Endeavor movement which had been organized five years before in Portland, Maine, by Dr. Francis Clark. On February 4, 1886 the Washburn Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized, named in honor of Rev. George Washburn who was pastor at the time. This organization has survived to achieve great success in the spiritual and social program of our young people through the years. During Mr. Washburn's pastorate the church observed the 25th Anniversary of its reunion in 1861 with appropriate services. For this occasion Mr. Bryant preached a historical sermon, from which we have obtained much of our information.

In spite of its own financial struggles, our Church through the years has been ever mindful of its responsibilities to the community at large. The Courtland Street Mission was originated in 1885 and was largely sustained by workers from this Church until it resulted in the organization of the Courtland Street Congregational Church in 1891. The Tileston Street Mission was founded by Mrs. George A. Brown, a member and former Sunday School Superintendent of our Church. In the face of tremendous odds she carried on the work there for many years, ably assisted by Mrs. George F. Silsby, Mrs. L. M. Gates and others. This Mission was taken over by the church in 1894, but has since been given up due to changed conditions. In 1893 a group of members of our Church together with a group from First Church in Malden formed the Mystic Side Congregational Church to meet the needs of that section of the town.

In addition to serving as a house of worship, First Church has played its part as a meeting house, lyceum and lecture hall for the community. Among the well-known orators who have spoken from our platform are Charles Sumner, Anson Burlingame and Wendall Phillips. Many prominent men of the New England clergy have also spoken from our pulpit. A community Memorial Service was held for President Lincoln during those sorrowful days following his assassination. For the first year after Everett's incorporation as a town in 1870, all Town Meetings were held in our Vestry. At the time of the great Chelsea fire our Vestry served as a hospital for injured and homeless victims.

During the pastorate of Rev. Eddy T. Pitts (1892) our church building was enlarged and remodeled to seat about 600 (its original seating capacity was 350). This was done at a cost of about $15,000. To meet this expense a mortgage was raised which was subsequently burned at the Roll Call in 1906. At the time of remodeling the Christian Endeavor Society presented the church with our present pulpit furniture, and a group of women raised funds for the Communion Table and Chairs. A rededication service was held on December 25, 1892, just forty years after the original dedication. That same month Everett became incorporated as a city, and on January 2, 1893 Alonzo H. Evans, a member of our church, became Everett's first mayor.

Rev. Arthur B. Patten came to us as a young minister with many progressive ideas. During his pastorate we adopted the use of individual Communion cups.

Rev. William Sweet was pastor during the observance of the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Church. The renting of pews was abolished in 1908. The apportionment plan of benevolences was adopted in 1910. The first organized work for boys was a Boy's Brigade started in 1898. Several other boy's groups followed this. The Men's Fraternal was organized in 1903. The beautiful steeple which originally formed part of our church buildnig was deemed upsafe in 1911 and had to be removed.

During Rev. Ansel Johnson's pastorate a new constitution was drawn up and a new Church Manual published. Mr. Johnson inaugurated the Every-Member Canvass and the use of the duplex offering envelopes. The Men's League was organized in 1913, succeeding the previous group. The Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society was reorganized and took the name of Woman's Union. The first definite work for girls was the organization of the Campfire Girls in 1914. The Christian Endeavor Society embarked upon its project of presenting a picture to the church each year, these to be hung on the Vestry walls. This period of our history witnessed the outbreak of the World War. 121 of our young men and two of our young women answered the ca'l of their country, and our earnest prayers followed them on their patriotic mission.

Rev. Hugh MacCallum came to us in 1920 to begin what was destined to be our longest pastorate. In 1922 a troop of Boy Scouts was organized which has been a vital force in our work for the boys. The Sigma Sigma Gammas, a group for young married women, was formed and has since rendered much service to our church both socially and financially. The first group of Girl Reserves was organized in 1924. Under the leadership of Miss Lillian Hamer the group developed into three active groups of Girl Reserves which have touched the lives of many girls of our city. A feature of the Girl Reserve program is their Annual Candlelight Service. The 75th Anniversary of our Church was observed with special services and a banquet in March of 1923. Three of our former pastors took part in the observance. Our present organ was dedicated on December 11, 1934 with appropriate ceremony. Mr. MacCallum inaugurated the custom of observing the Lenten Season with special weekly services. The first series of World Friendship Nights was held in 1929. In a reorganization of our young people's work, Junior and Intermediate Christian Endeavor groups were formed to train our younger age groups for eventual service in the Senior Society. The Washburn Y.P.S.C.E. celebrated its 50th Anniversary with an inspiring three-day program in February 1936. A guest of honor at the banquet was Mother Clark, wife of the founder of Christian Endeavor. A Mother's Club was organized during this period for mutual helpfulness in the training of the young people of our parish. Many new members were received into the church during Mr. MacCallum's pastorate. Among these were large numbers of young people. At the end of his long and fruitful pastorate, Mr. MacCallum resigned in 1938 and the church voted unanimously to make him Pastor-Emeritus.

In 1938 First Church observed its 90th Anniversary during the week of March 13th-20th. A program of events of thls occasion is recorded in a special booklet, which also contains a brief historical sketch to which we have referred in compiling this present history. A feature of the 90th Anniversary program was the presentation of a historical pageant "The Passing of the Years," written by Mrs. Henry R. Grant.

During the pastorate of Rev. Harlin Campbell a Couples' Club was formed to meet the needs of our young married members: its name was later changed to the Mr. and Mrs. Club. This group holds monthly meetings at the homes of its members. The parsonage on Pleasant Street was purchased in 1939. The outbreak of World War II in Europe in 1938 came as a tragic shock to all, and it led eventua'ly to the entrance of our own country into the war in December 1941. Once again our young folks answered the call of duty. The names of 131 of our young men and 9 of our young women appear on our Roll of Honor. Among these is the name of our pastor. Mr. Campbell tendered his resignation to enter the U. S. Army as a chaplain. However, the church did not accept his resignation and voted him instead an extended leave of absence for the duration of the war. During these war years Rev. Willis E. Smith served us as interim pastor. Our hearts were saddened by the loss of three of our young people in the service of their country. Dr. Smith was instrumental in raising funds for the redecoration of the interior of the church and the construction of a permanent stage in the vestry.

The present Young Adults' Fellowship was organized under Rev. William Fagan. The Christian Endeavor Alumni which had organized tentatively during the war, held a formal meeting of organization in 1947 at which officers were elected. In May of 1947 our Church School observed its 100th Anniversary with a week-long program of celebration. The School presented a lectern as a momento of the occasion.

Thus in this present year, our church itself observes its Centennial. And with this backward look we realize that truly "the Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." This was the text used by Rev. George Washburn in his historical sermon of 1886. Like him, "we stand with our faces not only to the past, but to the present and to the future." Like him, we hope for still greater things than these. And with an earnest prayer for His divine guidance, we step across the threshold into our second century.

The following pastors have served our church since its origin in 1848:

Rev. J. A. Benton	1848 - 1849
Rev. Francis G. Pratt	1849 - 1857
Rev. James Cruikshank	1859 - 1860
Rev. George B. Denham	1861 - 1862
*Rev. Oliver Brown	1862 - 1864
Rev. David M. Bean	1864 - 1868
Rev. Albert Bryant	1869 - 1874
Rev. Webster Hazelwood	1875 - 1876
Rev. William Bolster	1876 - 1881
Rev. George Y. Washburn	1882 - 1889
Rev. Eddy T. Pitts	1889 - 1894
Rev. Arthur B. Patten	1895 - 1897
Rev. William I. Sweet	1897 - 1911
*Rev. Cyrus Richardson, D. D.	1911 - 1912
Rev. Ansel E. Johnson	1912 - 1919
Rev. Hugh MacCallum	1920 - 1938
*Rev. Arthur M. Ellis, Ph.D.	1938 - 1939
Rev. Harlin M. Campbell	1939 - 1942
*Rev. Willis E. Smith, Litt.D.	1942 - 1945
Rev. William G. Fagan	1945 - 1947
*Rev. David Fraser	1947 -

* Interim pastors

Included in the foregoing sketch are certain items of historic interest which do not appear in our church records. For this information I wish to express indebtedness to the "Everett Souvenir", "Reminiscences Grave and Gay" by Mrs. Frank N. H. Diman and the Historical Sermon of Rev. George Y. Washburn.

Rev. Arthur Bardwell Patten,
Pastor First Church, 1895 - 1897

We worship Thee, unchanging God,
Amid the changing years,
For still Thy help of ages past
In our new time appears.
Our Father God, our Father God,
We trust Thy changeless will,
And now confess Thy faithfulness
Our timeless needs to fill.

We thank Thee for Thy guiding hand
Along the pilgrim way,
And seek the larger light that leads
To Thy prophetic way,
Our Father God, our Father God,
We trust Thy changeless will,
And hail Thy grace in Jesus' face,
With hearts that wake and thrill.

We lift the banner of our hope,
Our deeper faith avow,
And pledge anew our loyal love,
As at Thy throne we bow.
Our Father God, our Father God,
We trust Thy changeless will,
And join the seers of all the years
Thy purpose to fulfill.

The Centennial Committee wishes to thank every one for their help in making this celebration a success.

No matter how small your part, each little bit was a great help and greatly appreciated by each member of the committee.

Thanks to all our Sponsors, and especially thanks to the Advertisers, whose generosity made this book possible.

Show your thanks too, Patronize Our Advertisers.

Our thanks to Mr. Arvid Moberger, who contributed the etchings of the church. Orders for these can be given to Miss Margaret Morrison.
